Student Conference

The European Union and Global Order- Second Edition

The Department of European Studies and Governance, together with the Department of International Relations and German Studies of the Faculty of European Studies, Babeș-Bolyai University, are proud to organize the first edition of "The European Union and Global Order- Second Edition" students conference, on the 20th of March 2020, in Cluj-Napoca.

Format:

The goal of this conference is to encourage academic debate and create a network of researchers made up of BA, MA and PhD students, as well as other specialists in the field. The conference aims to create an international network of specialists who will convene in Cluj-Napoca annually in order to discuss and propose solutions to the most pressing European and global issues. There will be three sections dedicated to Romanian, as well as foreign/exchange students. The participants can present either in Romanian, English or French. Depending on the number of participants, the diversity of the themes and their proposals, thematic workshops may also be organized.

Target audience:

This conference is addressed to BA, MA, PhD students, researchers or specialists in the domains of European studies, international relations, European administration, management, economics, political science, sociology, history, cultural studies, journalism, political anthropology and not only.

Topics:

Please send us your contributions on the following topics (and not only). The participants are invited to come up with their own topics as long as they are related to the main theme of the conference.

1. Globalization: between dilemmas and development options

- European Economic Integration: A Response to the globalization process

2. Diplomacy and International Relations

3. The US Presidential Election

4. Brexit

5. European Green Deal

6. Romania's Presidency at the EU

7. Policies and Strategy in the European Union

- Public Policy Analysis: actors, processes and theories

- The Common Agricultural Policy and Its global impact

- Education, Youth, Cultural and Sports Policies

- Romania's Presidency in the Council of the European Union

- The Youth's perception of the quality of life in the European Union

- Electoral Systems: problems, projects, reforms

- E-governance, E-participation, E-democracy

8. European and International Crises. Systematic Crises or Developments Opportunities?

- Types of International Crises

9. Africa, a forgotten continent? EU-Africa Cooperation

10. EU- Asia Cooperation

11. The 5 Scenarios regarding the EU

12. The European Union and the Global Governance process

  • EU in the Global Economy

  • Constitutionalism, parliamentarianism and types of governance

13. Instability and conflicts in the Eastern neighbourhood of the EU

14. Terrorism, migration and vulnerabilities of the Post-Modern World

  • Migration and refugees

  • Humanitarian Crises and the interventions of the International NGOs

  • Nationalism and Ethnicity

  • Human Security

  • Trump and the Paris Agreement

Abstracts:

Those interested are kindly asked to send a 250-300 word abstract and their CV (Romanian English or French), until the 20th of February at conferintafse@gmail.com

The abstracts must be sent in one of the formats: Word (doc., docx); PDF and they must include the following:

1. Author(s)

2. University, Faculty and Major

3. Email Address

4. The title of the presentation

5.	Abstract

Those accepted will be notified until the 1st of March. The presentations must not exceed 15-20 minutes per participant, as it will be followed by a discussion.

IMPORTANT!

There is a participation fee of 50 RON for this conference (which also includes the publishing fee)

The organizers will offer the participants coffee breaks, lunch, as well as conference materials.

The scientific papers will be ultimately published in a collective volume, eBook format (with ISBN) at a nationally recognized publishing house: Presa Universitară Clujeană.