

Transference of the EU Integration Model from East-Central Europe to the Western Balkans

Roundtable: The state of integration of the Western Balkans. Views from Brussels

November 11th, 2022

The Faculty of European Studies invites participants to the fourth international roundtable centred on the state of integration of the Western Balkans (with a focus on perceptions and views from Brussels) on November 11th 2022.

The roundtable is the fourth event organized by the Faculty of European Studies under the Exploratory Research Project PN-II-P4-ID-PCE-2020-2.

Description: the roundtable focuses on the European Union's negotiations with the Western Balkan countries. The main goal is to present the state of integration, based on findings from field research conducted in Albania, Montenegro, North Macedonia and Serbia, but also on interviews taken with experts in Brussels.

The roundtable will be held in English and welcomes both on-site and on-line participation.

Venue & registration: Faculty of European Studies, room Robert Schuman, 1 Em. de Martonne street, second floor. For those who opt for on-line participation, a Zoom link is provided by the organizers. Please register for the event through an e-mail sent to Ph.Dc. Gianina Joldescu (gianina.joldescu@ubbcluj.ro) by November 9th 2022.
