

Transference of the EU Integration Model from East-Central Europe to the Western Balkans

Roundtable: Methods of accessing EU-WB negotiations: a multidisciplinary endeavour

November 4th, 2022

The Faculty of European Studies invites participants to the third international roundtable centred on the methodological tools employed in the study of European integration (with a focus on the East-Central European states and their experience as a model for the future integration of the Western Balkans countries) on November 4th 2022.

The roundtable is the third event organized by the Faculty of European Studies under the Exploratory Research Project PN-II-P4-ID-PCE-2020-2.

Description: the roundtable focuses on the European Union's negotiations with the Western Balkan countries. The main goal is to identify specificities of EU-Western Balkan processes of negotiation, based on findings from field research conducted in Albania, Montenegro, North Macedonia and Serbia, but also on secondary data. The discussions will include various methodological approaches and multidisciplinary endeavours.

The roundtable will be held in English and welcomes both on-site and on-line participation.

Venue & registration: Faculty of European Studies, room Robert Schuman, 1 Em. de Martonne street, second floor. For those who opt for on-line participation, a Zoom link is provided by the organizers. Please register for the event through an e-mail sent to Ph.Dc. Gianina Joldescu (gianina.joldescu@ubbcluj.ro) by October 25th 2022.
