9. The correspondence between the content of the course and the expectations of the academic community, professional associations and representative employers in the field:

The course will provide elementary notions of economics, which will contribute to the understanding of the most important process in the world. They will be encouraged to make connections with their knowledge acquired through other disciplines. In this process, the students will acquire/develop transversal competences, valued on the labor market, like analysis, synthesis, critical and creative thinking, research in data bases, work under time pressure, teamwork, public speaking etc.

10. Assessment

Type of activity	10.1 Assessment criteria	10.2 Assessment methods	10.3 Percentage of the final grade
10.4 Course	Pertinence of the answers to the questions at the final exam; Good understanding of elementary notions and their use in specific context;	Written exam ATTENTION! If sanitary restrictions prevent face-to-face meetings, the exam will take form of an essay under strong time&space limits (2 hours, 4500-5500 characters without spaces, academic style).	70% of the final grade
10.5 Seminar	Quality of the oral presentation; Active participation in individual and group activities during the semester.	Evaluation of the activity (discussion, questions, answers, analysis, synthesis related to the seminar's materials)	30% of the final grade
10.6 Minimum standard of performance
Obtaining the minimal grade 5.
