

International Asian Symposium:
Interdisciplinary Perspectives Across Cultural Frontiers

The Faculty of European Studies at Babeş-Bolyai University Cluj-Napoca is pleased to announce the first edition of the international Asian Symposium: Interdisciplinary Perspectives Across Cultural Frontiers, to be held on March 1st.

The symposium aims to provide an interdisciplinary and intercultural approach to Asian studies, with a focus on East Asia. It offers students and researchers the opportunity to present their latest findings in various fields, for instance, but not limited to:

- Identity politics;
- New shifts in authority on a state level;
- Emerging social dynamics, protests, and conflicts;
- Human rights and democratic practices;
- Media, technology, and political engagement.

The event will occur both online and at the Faculty of European Studies (1 Em. de Martonne St., Cluj-Napoca, Romania, room Robert Schuman). No participation fees are required.

The selected papers will be published in a post-conference volume of Studia Europaea, UBB, ISSN (online): 2065-9563.

Relevant deadlines:

- February 12: deadline for submitting the title and abstract;
- February 14: notice of acceptance;
- May 24: deadline for submitting the paper.

Registration can be done using the QR code in the invite or at this link:

<https://forms.gle/XDEbTmBtvFsCJZuM6>