9. The correspondence between the content of the course and the expectations of the academic community, professional associations and representative employers in the field:

- The course aims to provide students with essential knowledge regarding the origins and evolution of the European project, amid its contemporary crises and challenges. It also includes details about the enlargement of the European Community / Union, encompassing the Central-European area, in order for students to comprehend the importance of this process and its specific boundaries. The information pertaining to the evolution of EU institutions, based on the treaties this course aims to analyse, along with the general facts regarding the progress of European construction will enable students to gain background knowledge about other disciplines in the area of European Studies, as well as to meet the requirements of professional integration into the labour market in this respect.
