

Luo Jiawei – China

I studied in UBB last semester, for me, it is an unforgettable experience. When I first entered the school, I was attracted by its solemn atmosphere, because here in China, universities usually don't have a long history. Then the teachers are really nice, they are always willing to help students like me.

This photo was taken when I delivered a speech.

