9. The correspondence between the content of the course and the expectations of the academic community, professional associations and representative employers in the field:

This course aims to develop essential abilities meant to foster the students' integration into the professional environment, by means of the various written and oral communication elements it relies on. The latter are presented in an interactive manner, the contents are up-to-date, the teaching methods are modern and the involvement of students is constant. Moreover, the course makes use of knowledge students have acquired from other courses within the curriculum and it is meant to facilitate the comprehension of other subjects in the field, from a terminological/linguistic point of view.
